

Are you interested in completing one of your dietetic internship rotations with the Summerfield Custom Wellness team? We will select three dietetic interns annually to participate in an internship opportunity for candidates who are interested in an outpatient nutrition counseling career.

Interested candidates, please read the details, requirements, and application process below. Our internship opportunities are only available for students currently enrolled in a CDR-accredited dietetic internship program.

INTERNSHIP DETAILS & REQUIREMENTS

Internship location

Remote internship with candidates in NC preferred

SUMMERFIELD
CUSTOM WELLNESS

Anticipated projects and opportunities

- Observe patient appointments and group nutrition classes
- Develop educational content such as presentations, handouts, and program materials
- Collaborate on various projects with the leadership, provider, and administrative teams
- Attend outreach events, such as health fairs, to educate attendees about nutrition services
- Attend trainings and/or continuing education activities alongside a team of experienced Registered Dietitians

Rotation length

4-12 weeks, depending on the candidate's program requirements
(between 150-480 hours)

Annual rotation schedule

Spring: Rotation takes place between February - May 2022

- Applications accepted October 1-31, 2021
- Applications reviewed and candidates interviewed in November 2021
- Candidates notified of final decision by December 1, 2021

Summer: Rotation takes place between May-July 2022

- Applications accepted November 1-30, 2021
- Applications reviewed and candidates interviewed in December 2021
- Candidates notified of final decision by January 10, 2022

Fall: Rotation takes place between August - November 2022

- Applications accepted April 1-30, 2022
- Applications review and candidates interviewed in May 2022
- Candidates notified by June 1, 2022

Application process

Please send a letter of interest and your current resume within the designated application periods to info@summerfieldcw.com, with the subject line: DIETETIC INTERN APPLICATION- (LAST NAME).

Your letter of interest should be 400-600 words, and include:

- Details about your personal career goals and aspirations
- Why you are interested in interning at Summerfield Custom Wellness
- What you wish to gain from your internship experience
- Logistic details such as expected dates, length of rotation, and any specific program requirements.